ONLY ONE DISSENTING VOTE.

Robert Emmet Burke, of Illinois, a delegate who announced he would not vote for the president, raised the only voice in opposition. He was elected as guests from a distance, an independent.

Many delegates and spectators made a rush for the exits when the vice presidential nomination was made and in the confusion Senator James with great difficulty restored order.

The resolutions were then read and adopted appointing Chairman James and former Gov. Glynn of New York chairman of committee, respectively to notify the president and vice president of their nomination.

Senator Hughes, Taggart and Vard-Gov. Stuart of Virginia, the delegates aman were appointed to confer with wanted to wait no longer and cried, the platform committee which still was in session to learn if it was ready
